

JOHN 15

(Joel Limpic)

Intro: A B C#m (2x)

E E/D#
You are the vine, we are the branches

C#m
You are the source

B A
We are the beggars (the desperate, the needy)

Apart from You we're withered and listless
But deep in You
There's life to the fullest (Fruit that lasts forever)

E B
So help us remain in You

C#m G#m
We want to live and drink Your truth

E B
And as we make our home in You

C#m B F#/Bb (intro)
Lord, You make Your home in us

Cut off the things that keep us from You
Prune everything
That hinders You flowing (In and through our veins)

God, let Your words take root in our hearts
And keep Your commands
And remain in Your love (that our joy would be complete)

E B
So help us remain in You
 C#m G#m
We want to live and drink Your truth
 E B
And as we make our home in You
 C#m B A B C#m
Lord, You make Your home in us

A B C#m
 No longer called servants, we are now friends
 No longer polluted, we are now clean
 By the words you have spoken, we are free
 No longer called servants, we are now friends
 No longer polluted, we are now clean
 A B C#m A
 By the words You have spoken, we are free indeed

E B
So help us remain in You
 C#m G#m
We want to live and drink Your truth
 E B
And as we make our home in You
 C#m B A
Lord, You make Your home in us
 E B
Help us remain in You
 C#m G#m
We want to live and drink Your truth
 E B
And as we make our home in You
 C#m B F#/Bb
Lord, You make Your home in us (3x)
